

Travel agents visit, tour Kodiak Island

Kodiak Island was recently visited by 12 travel agents from Belgium seeking stopover and incentive destinations, according to the Kodiak Island Convention & Visitors Bureau.

The group was brought to Alaska by Swiss Air in an effort to combine stopovers with Swiss Air travel. Swiss Air executives visited Kodiak in May in connection with the airline's inaugural flight into Anchorage.