BUSINESS LEADER OF THE WEEK

CONGRATULATIONS THOMAS JOHNSON

Thomas Johnson, a business specialist for the International Union of Operating Engineers, has extensive knowledge of Alaska, especially Nome. For the past two years, Thomas has been a field representative for the operating engineers in the areas of Nome, Yukon, Bethel, Kotzebue, Lisbourne and the North Slope.

Thomas has been in the union for 33 years. He owns an apartment house in Nome and a commercial fishing boat in the Bristol Bay, Nome area. Thomas was on the Nome City Council for six years, the utility board for seven years and is a commissioner for the Alaska State Commission for Human Rights.

Born in Kinak (Kuskokwim area), Thomas' mother is from Nelson Island. His father is from Norway and came to Bristol Bay to fish in 1912. Thomas is married, he and his wife, Myrtle have five children and seven grandchildren.

United Bank Alaska proudly salutes Thomas, and we congratulate him for being an outstanding member of our community.
