

"I'm not an alcoholic...but I needed treatment every bit as much as my alcoholic husband."

"Alcoholism is a family disease. It affects everyone around the alcoholic. My everyday life was verbal and physical abuse . . . dreading the hour he would walk through the door. I did not know how to detach from him.

My dependency was just as real as his . . . only I didn't understand it until I called a treatment center and asked for help. You have your own life to live. Call now and find out how to start . . . Help us help you."
