

Wescott named Jackson Fellow

Siobhon M. Wescott, an Athabascan Indian from Fairbanks, was named the first Henry M. Jackson Fellow to serve on the U.S. Senate Select Committee on Indian Affairs.

She is assigned to the staff of Chairman Danial Inouye, D-Hawaii.

Wescott is the daughter of Dr. Gene Wescott, a geophysicist at the University of Alaska Fairbanks, and Dr. Betty Parent of San Francisco, Calif.
