

Mother

If you knew how much we depend on you.
If you knew how much we care for you.
If you knew how much we love you.
You would be very surprised. Very much.
Overwhelmed.

Though there has been those hard times as well as good memories, together we went through them, we made it through all of them.

Yes, those hard times seem to last an eternity, but remember they make you stronger and may I remind you, they are what makes you as wise as you are now.

Though hardships seem to last longer then you'd wish or hope, good times seem to fly by.

That is why you must remember those times.

They may not come by often. You may not recognize them at first.

Look, they are there.

Hard times come, as they always do.

When they do, tell yourself this;

Things always turn out for the best.

Remind yourself this and may I remind you,

We are here for you, You've been there for us, and I know you'll always be there for us.

But we are here for you, if you need someone to talk to or,

Someone to hold.

Someone to keep you company.

Mom, we'll be there for you.

We Love You.
