

One's short, one's tall; both can handle the ball

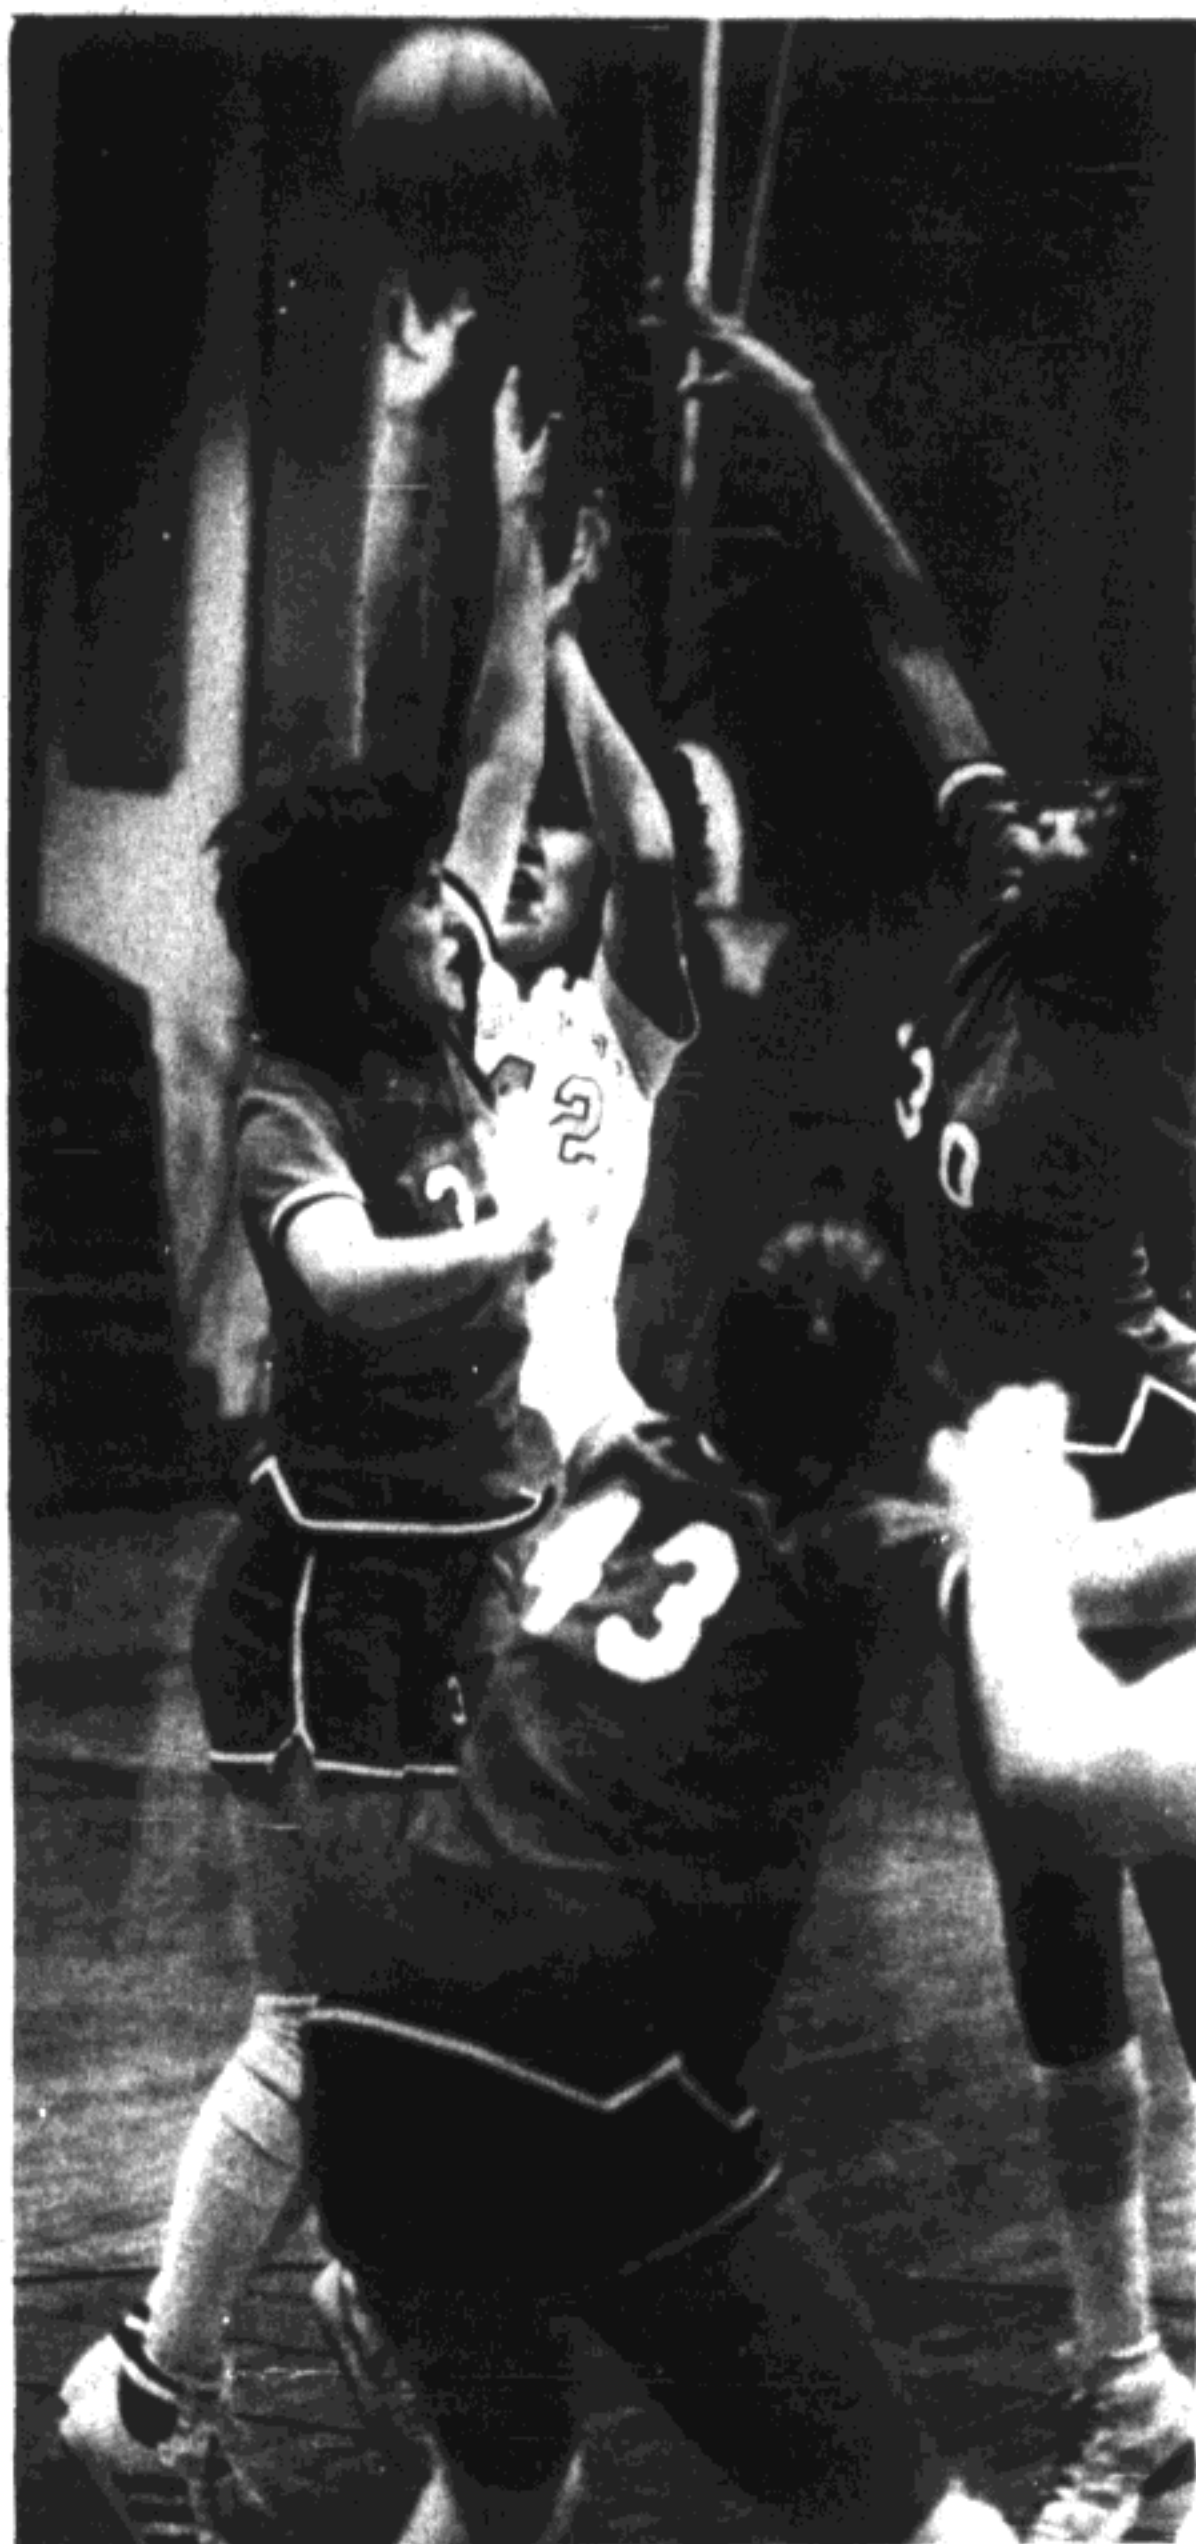

Shelly Kohinka puts up a defense which a West opponent finds virtually impenetrable.

Although she is only 5'5" inches tall, a mighty leap puts Doreen Ahgiak over her competitors as she goes for two. She will score 19 for Service High this game.

Ahgiak holds her head in frustration (lower left) after being removed from the game. Soon, her frustration turns to joy (above) as her team beats West High, 39 to 36.
