

St. Paul station to be renovated

The U.S. Coast Guard has awarded a contract of nearly $3.4 million to Alaska Mechanical Contractors of Anchorage for the overhaul of a LORAN station on St. Paul Island, the Alaska Congressional Delegation announced recently.

The contract includes all materials, equipment and labor for work consisting of the replacement of insulation, interior walls, doors and windows, mechanical work and the replacement and repair of electrical and mechanical systems.