

Audition Saturday for Native troupe

Way-Off Broadway announces auditions Saturday from noon to 4 p.m. for Spirit, an all-Alaska Native acting troupe.

Six Alaska Native men and women, from the ages of 16 on up, will be selected. No prior stage experience is necessary, however, experience in traditional Native dance, contemporary dance or gymnastics would be helpful.

Each person must be able to take direction, work in a team and be physically able to dance.

Rehearsals will be on weekends beginning Sept. 5, during the day. Others interested in working as stage managers, technical crew and in other related areas are also encouraged to call.

Those interested may contact Jeannie Greene, 563-3075.
