

Try A Toll-Free "800" Number Today!

Go ahead. Pick any toll-free number you see on TV or in a catalogue and give it a try. It's free.

For the first time in history, Alaskans can call nationwide toll-free numbers. And Alascom is adding more numbers every day.

So next time you want to use your telephone to order merchandise, for information, or instant service, feel free.

And remember, only Alascom makes "800" toll-free calling possible for all Alaskans.

Not all "800" numbers are valid nationally by choice of companies subscribing to this service. For specific information on "800" subscribers, you may call toll-free information at 800-555-1212.

For more information about choosing your long distance company, call Alascom at 284-7700 in Anchorage, 458-9770 in Fairbanks, 586-5014 in Juneau or 800-478-7700 statewide.
