The Arctic Chamber Orchestra performed for the residents of Alakanuk at the high school earlier this fall. The conductor of the orchestra is

Gordon Wright, who introduced the different instruments.

There are about 34 members in the orchestra.

The 1987 fall tour included Teller, Nome, Unalakleet, Stebbins, St. Michael, Emmonak, Kalakag, Alakanuk, Chevak, Hooper Bay, Bethel, Aniak and Fairbanks.

The Alakanuk Student Council donated $200 to help pay the orchestra's expenses.

Everyone enjoyed the performance they gave.
