

Billy English, Jr. Graduates from Yale University

Billy English, Jr., formerly of Fairbanks, recently graduated from Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut. He received his degree in Political Science on May 19th at commencement ceremonies.

At Yale, the Fairbanks-born youth was an active member of the Varsity track team and also vice-president of the Yale Flying Club.

A member of Doyon, Ltd. and a former Little League baseball player in Fairbanks, the one-quarter Eskimo youth would like "to see some of his old friends again and talk over old times."

After a short summer trip to Israel and the Mediterranean area, Bill will return to Anchorage where his father is a senior captain and Director for Wien Air Alaska.
