

Safe Water Facility for Emmonak

Congressman Begich announced that the Environmental Protection Agency has awarded a contract for work to be performed in Emmonak, Alaska and Washington, D.C.

The cumulative amount of the contract is $351,450.

The purpose of the project is to demonstrate methods to provide for central community facilities for safe water and the elimination or control of water pollution in those remote villages of Alaska without such facilities.