

Downey completes Army supply class

Army National Guard Pvt. Paul W. Downey has completed a supply course at the U.S. Army Training Center at Fort Jackson, S.C.

During the course, students received instruction in the maintenance of stock records and the procedures necessary to receive, store, issue and ship supplies and materiel.

Downey is the son of Emmaline Downey of Noatak. He is a 1987 graduate of Noatak High School.