Request for Proposal

Staff Training Needs Assessment and
Talent Bank Feasibility Consultant

The Department of Community & Regional Affairs, Division of Community Employment and Training Assistance (CETA) is soliciting proposals for consultant services to: (A) conduct a staff training needs assessment of Alaskan CETA Prime Sponsors, Native American Grantees and the Alaska Department of Labor Employment Security Division (Job Service), and; (B) to determine the feasibility of establishing and maintaining a Talent Bank of individuals employed by the above named organizations that are willing and able to provide staff training and technical assistance. This study shall serve as the basis for developing a comprehensive staff training and technical assistance plan for FY'81.

Consultants interested in submitting proposals are encouraged to obtain a complete Request for Proposal package, which will fully describe the scope of work by contacting:
