Editor's note: Years ago, when Howard was alive and Tom and I were working late in Fairbanks, I thought I was doing all a favor. I had ripped out and disposed a layout of "Viet Nam" guys, villagers and Fairbanksans who were serving in 'that war and elsewhere.' Only then, did I get reminded that no other publication tells their friends and families where and who these men and women were. That's why the Tundra Times will continue to publish their accomplishments and notices.
