

Correction. . .

An incorrect name and address were listed in the Nov. 19 issue of the Tundra Times concerning "Safety City," a miniature town created to help children understand the concept of safety and how they need to use safety and prevention in their lives every day.

Safety City is available to schools and the public upon request. The person to contact is Elma Williams at Local 1547 of the IBEW, 272-6571, in Anchorage.