

From Throughout Nation—

Indian Art Exhibition at Phoenix

PHOENIX, AZ.— Exceptionally find paintings and crafts of Indians from all over the United States, Canada and Mexico will be for display and sale at the Heard Museum Guild's 3rd Annual Indian Arts & Crafts Exhibit Nov. 28 thru Dec. 6, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Deadline for entries is Nov. 9; entry forms can be obtained by writing the Chairman, Arts & Crafts Exhibit, Heard Museum, 22 East Monte Vista, Phoenix, Arizona 85004.

This is considered by experts to be one of the finest exhibits of its kind in the world.

Fourteen classifications, with up to four divisions in each, will include arts and crafts of Indian students as well as adults, with a special student pottery division.

Works will be judged by qualified experts and awards given in all divisions; cash awards will be greater than ever before.

The Heard Museum of Anthropology and Primitive Arts is renowned for its non-profit help to all Indians and for its ever-expanding display of Indian art, past and present, to the public.
