

Rights Agency Gets Grant for Work Survey

WASHINGTON— Sen. Mike Gravel of Alaska today said he has been informed that the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission has approved a six month grant extension of $9800 for the Alaska Human Rights Commission to do minority employment survey in Anchorage, Fairbanks and the Kenai area.

The extended grant will run until December 31, 1970.

Bob Willard is Executive Director of Alaska's Human Rights Commission.