

Nicori Running

JOHN I. NICORI

John I. Nicori feels that something has got to be done to improve conditions in rural Alaska and, for this reason, is running for the State House of Representatives.

A Democrat from Kwethluk, Nicori is candidate for the District 14 seat in the Bethel area. Opposing him in the August primary will be Philip Guy, also of Kwethluk, and incumbent George Homan, Jr. of Bethel.

In a letter to the Tundra Times, Nicori mentioned that the children do not have adequate recreational facilities.
