

RurAL CAP Gets 19 New VISTA

RurAL CAP, which is one of the five prime sponsors of VISTAs in the state, recently received 19 new volunteers. They are part of the group totalling 50-55 volunteers who have just completed ACTION and individual sponsor training sessions in Anchorage.

Upon completion of their week-long training, they departed for their duty stations as listed below:

— Alaska State Museum, Juneau—Shirley Fogarino.

— Copper River Native Association — Mark Anderson, Bruce McGrue.

— Gwitcha Gwitchin Ginhyke — Kathlyn Wood.

— Kodiak Area Community Development Corporation — Sherry Myers.

— Koyukon Development Corporation — Barbara Alberts, Marshall Geisy, Bill McNeil, Donald Stand.

— Mauneluk Association — Thomas McKenna.

— North Pacific Rim Native Association — Gary Purvis, John Lyou, Robert Ouellet, Steven Rynes, Gloria Sarri.

— Rural Alaska Community Action Program (Anchorage) — Tom Cook, John Easterbrook.

— SEACAP, Inc. — George Allen, Ann Moore.

— Upper Tanana Development Corporation — David Fretz.

— Yupiktak Bista — Kathy Knight, Marlin Knight, Diane Pfeiffer.

— Alaska Federation of Natives (Bush Justice) — Evan McKenzie.

The majority of the volunteers are assigned to regional projects related to community organization/mobilization, grant/contract writing and training, local government assistance, regional planning, and health services.