

Haven't Changed Much in 80 Years

A couple of days ago, a friend of Tundra Times' editor brought in a copy of the Park County Republican and Fairplay Flume, official paper of Park County, Colorado.

On the first page, a column lists notable events 80 years ago, from the January 15, 1885 issue of the paper.

Among the events listed - A delegation of Kiowa and Comanche Indians is in Washington protesting against the lease of their lands to the cattle men."

Things haven't changed too much in 80 years, have they?
