

Director named for St. Francis

Sister Yolande Vachereau, a Sister of St. Ann, has been named director of St. Francis House in Anchorage by James Calderola, director of Catholic Social Services.

St. Francis House provides clothing for women and children and emergency food to the needy.

Sister Yolande is no stranger to Alaska. From 1966 to 1971, when she was known as Sister Mary Bernard, she was assistant principal and teacher at Copper Valley School in Glennallen.

For the past 15 years, she has been a teacher and dean of students at St. Ann's Academy in Rawdon, Quebec.
