

International Platform Assn. Elects Marlene

The Board of Governors of the International Platform Association has announced the election to its membership of Marlene Johnson of Hoonah.

The International Platform Association is the club and trade association of those who appear before audiences in all media and of those interested in oratory and the power of the printed word, according to Director General Tyler Moore who announced the appointment.

Mrs. Johnson is past president of RurAL CAP programs and vice president-treasurer of Southeast Skyways. She is also the President of the Hoonah School Board, member of SEACAP and of the Central Council of the Tlingit and Haida Indians.

The present membership of IPA, which was founded in 1831 by Daniel Webster, includes many celebrities of the press, T. V., radio, movies and the theatre as well as others.
