

Mallott Travels to Wash. on Business

RurAL CAP Executive Director Byron Mallott has traveled to Washington D.C., New York City and Memphis, Tennessee.

He spent two days in Washington meeting with congressional and federal officials concerning RurAL CAP programs, and then flew to New York with AFN Deputy Director Al Ketzler to meet with Ford Foundation officials and other agencies to discuss AFN programs and activities.

From New York, Mallott and Ketzler flew to Memphis to attend the annual convention of the National Association for Community Development. They expect to return to Anchorage on April 15th.
