

Important PUBLIC NOTICE

For all of Rural Alaska

Alaska Native Economic Development Summit Meeting

will be held May 11-12 at the Anchorage Hilton Hotel, co-sponsored by the Alaska Federation of Natives and the Community Enterprise Development Corporation.

The purpose of the event is to address the serious and deepening economic crisis facing rural Alaska and to develop strategies which will break the existing cycle of economic disaster and lead to economic opportunities and benefits for rural Alaska. Your participation is required if solutions to these problems are to be found.

A registration fee of $50.00 covers the cost of information packets and lunch the first day.

For further information contact Emil Notti at 2587452

We're Still Banking on Alaska!

The National Cooperative Bank has extensive experience in financing Alaskan Native regional and village corporations and other cooperatively-structured businesses. NCB offers such financing programs as:

- lines of credit
- equipment leasing
- business planning
- working capital loans
- term loans
- mortgage financing
- investment banking services

We'd like to discuss your financing needs.

Contact: Alan L. Williams
National Cooperative Bank
1577 C Street, Suite 200
Anchorage, Alaska 99501
(907) 274-5400

National Cooperative Bank

I think living in a small village is great for a lot of people because a person has less of a chance of getting lonely...simply because of the continual interaction between friends, family and neighbors.

Working in a village job can be as productive, busy, and satisfying as a city job because there are usually only one or two people in each organization conducting business for the entire village.

—Marilyn Attla, Health aide
Ruby, Alaska

sponsored by CIRI COOK INLET REGION, INC.