

UA Annual Poetry Contest Aired By Oliver Everette

COLLEGE — The annual Spring Contest of the University of Alaska has been announced by Oliver Everette of the College of Arts and Letters.

Prizes in four categories will amount to $200.

The contest is open to grade school, high school, college students, and non-students. The deadline for entries will be 5 p.m. March 3.

Three first prizes of $50 will be given to winners in the high school, college, and non-student categories. The top three grade school entries will receive $25, $15, and $10 prizes.

The non-student competition is open to school faculty and part-time students, except members of the College of Arts and Letters.