

"That DWI actually saved my life, because the judge insisted that I get into treatment."

Johnny, Commercial Fisherman

Most people don't face their drinking or drug problems until they are forced into it. It may be a judge, a wife, a boss, a doctor or a friend who provides the push. Providence Breakthrough offers effective, life-changing programs which help people get sober and stay that way. Call for a free, confidential appointment. Providence Breakthrough. Treatment from professionals you trust.
