

HOME-TOWN USO.

USO brings a touch of home into the lives of our 2 million servicemen and women and their 3 million dependents around the world.

But USO needs your help. It gets no government funds and depends entirely on your generosity. USO gives a lot. They need you to give a little.

Support USO through the United Way or local USO campaign.

BUSINESS LEADER OF THE WEEK

CONGRATULATIONS MARY GORDAO

Mary Gordao has spent many years as a dedicated leader in Native affairs in Alaska. Her many efforts have seen the incorporation of Chugach Natives, Inc., and she now serves as the company's Executive Director. Mary was appointed by Governor Egan to serve on the first Native Task Force and has also worked on the 2-c study for the Alaska Native Foundation, the coordination of Native enrollment in her region, and a study for the aged for the Seattle Consortium.

Mary was born in Tatitlek and also lived in Cordova. She graduated from Wrangell Institute in 1941. Her husband George and their eight children share Mary's strong interest in all Native related matters.

United Bank Alaska proudly salutes Mary, and we congratulate her for being an outstanding leader in our community.
