

CLASSIFIED

HELP WANTED

PROJECT DIRECTOR FOR THE JOHNSON O'MALLEY PROGRAM (Project NOW for FY 76/77)

Responsible for all components, staff and budget of the alternative education program. Must maintain liaison with officials of FNA, FNSB School District and related agencies, and maintain good working relationship with Native students.

QUALIFICATIONS: BA or equivalent experience relating to communication arts, management or public administration. Familiar with contractual business and with educational program affecting Native students. Applications will be accepted at Employment, Fairbanks Native Association, 102 Lacey St., Fairbanks, Alaska 99701 until May 14, 1976.

HELP WANTED

STATE OF ALASKA DEPUTY DIRECTOR, LANDS

$2,720 in Anchorage.
Assists the Director in planning, directing and coordinating division programs. Requires five years experience in land or resource management one of which was as District Land Manager, Forester IV or Leasing Officer III or equivalent.

CHIEF, LANDS SECTION

$2,525 in Anchorage.
Plans and supervises selection, appraisal and disposal of state lands; administers applicable statutes, regulations and policies. Requires bachelor's degree with appropriate major and five years responsible experience in land management and real estate or land planning and appraisal.

CHIEF, PLANNING & CLASSIFICATION

$2,525 in Anchorage.
Supervises the planning and classification of all state lands, and administers applicable statutes, regulations and policies. Requires bachelor's degree with appropriate major and five years appropriate responsible experience, including two years supervisory experience. Four additional years of appropriate responsible experience may substitute for education.

For details contact:

Myron Q. Richardson
Division of Personnel & Labor Relations
Pouch C
Juneau, Alaska 99811
An Equal Opportunity Employer

HELP WANTED

CLINICIAN FOR COMPREHENSIVE ALCOHOLISM PROGRAM. Must have ability to relate with various cultural/ethnic groups. Coordinates treatment aspects of all components of FNA Alcoholism Services. Provides training for staff. Develops and oversees individual treatment plans with counselors. Conducts individual and group counseling sessions with clients as needed.

QUALIFICATIONS: Master's or Ph.D. in clinical psychology with specialization in cross-cultural counseling. Applications will be accepted in Employment, Fairbanks Native Community Center, 102 Lacey St., Fairbanks, Alaska 99701 until April 30, 1976.

HELP WANTED

The University of Alaska, Fairbanks has a position open for Director, Physical Plant. Full-time permanent. The Director of Physical Plant has the management responsibility for the economical, safe and healthful operation and maintenance, budget and administers the budget according to sound budgeting principles. Advises Statewide Planning on technical matters relating to future construction of facilities. Work also involves responsibilities of consulting with and/or advising the Chancellor on matters relating to space use. Services on advisory committees as requested by the President or Chancellor. Must be knowledgeable of fire and building codes, OSHA laws and EEO regulations. Must be able to promote, establish and maintain sound working relations between a staff of four superintendents, nine supervisors plus a staff engineer, a maintenance dispatcher, a preventive maintenance superintendent and approximately 175 employees. Bachelor's degree in some discipline of Engineering required. Advanced degree in Engineering or Business Management Preferred. Minimum of eight years of responsible work experience in an engineering discipline and/or environment, three of which must have been in Alaska or subarctic region and five years of which must have been in or directly associated with an educational or public institution physical plant. Salary depends on qualifications and experience. Send copies of resume to Personnel Services, University of Alaska-Fairbanks, Room 110, Bunnell Building, Fairbanks, Alaska 99701.

The University is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

HELP WANTED

DEPUTY DIRECTOR. For Fairbanks Native Community Center. Responsible for staffing of all FNA positions, for maintaining programs in compliance with their contracts, for contract negotiations, for development of new and continuing programs for grant proposals, for over-all coordination of existing FNA programs, for identifying funding sources for new programs, and for the over-all maintenance of building and vehicles.

QUALIFICATIONS: Four years of college in social services administration, humanities or a related field. Or the equivalent work experience in a related field. Applications will be accepted until May 14, 1976 at Employment, FNCC, 102 Lacey Street, Fairbanks, Alaska 99701.