

Governor's Review Board on Alcoholism meets

The Governor's Review Board on Alcoholism met in the Egan Convention Center in Anchorage, June 4-7, 1986. The main item on the agenda was to review Alcohol program proposals and make recommendations for funding through Commissions of HHS Pugh.

Being the Board's annual meeting, election of officers was held. Frank O. Williams, Jr. was elected chairman and Nancy Davis, vice chair of the Alcohol Review Board.

The Alcohol and Drug Board will be holding joint meetings and the recommendation of both boards is that they should be merged into one substance abuse board. With that in mind Frank O. Williams Jr. was elected as presiding officer when the joint board meets, Reggie Joule of the Drug Board will be vice-chairman. The Alcohol Board will also have a representative attending SEAHSA meetings, Alexis Foote will be the primary representative with Frank O. Williams the Alternate.
