

1995 Native Musicales packs an Anchorage auditorium

Anchorage Native Choir members sing heartfelt hymns. Many of the members are local to Anchorage, but take anybody from anywhere to join in their singspiration.

Billy Stone and his daughter, Molly Margaret, are part of the Point Hope Singspiration. Molly was nervous at first, but she loosened up and enjoyed her singing.

The Togiak Sisters Trio was a highlight during the Anchorage Fur Rendezvous celebration last month.
