

Board for Huna Totem Corp. elected at meeting in Hoonah

Frank O. Williams Jr. of Sitka was elected chairman of the Huna Totem Corp. at the annual meeting held last month at the ANB Hall in Hoonah.

Spokesmen said the board reported that the corporation is doing well, and that it has no debts. Also, officers reported that the corporation has set up a shareholder's trust fund and will stop cutting trees this year.

"The corporation is in good financial condition," they said.

Elected to the board was the management slate of Marlene Johnson, Ernest Hillman and Carolyn Martin. Other members of the board are Williams, Albert Dick, William "Ozzie" Sheakley, Harvey Marvin, Ralph Knudson Sr. and Paul White.

Other officers elected besides Williams were Dick, vice chairman; and Sheakley, secretary/treasurer.
