MarkAir salutes Bob Atwood.

"Where else in the world could we have lived and had the excitement and the experiences that we had right here."

Alaska is our home.

MARKAIR

40 YEARS OF SERVICE • 1947-1987

Bob Atwood left his native Massachusetts in 1935 for adventure in Alaska. He bought the Anchorage Daily Times and made plans for spending a few years practicing frontier journalism.

Then came Pearl Harbor, followed by the battle for the Aleutians, followed by the battle for statehood. Then the '64 Good Friday Earthquake — and the discovery of Prudhoe Bay oil.

Bob found himself immersed in the drama and excitement of pioneering a new state into the future. And he found a home that offered opportunities he never dreamed of.

MarkAir salutes Bob Atwood as part of our celebration of serving Alaskans for 40 years. And just like Bob, we're always proud to call Alaska our home.
