

Keeping Alaska Informed...

"... APRN's coverage has been thorough, excellent, and professional"

— Roy Huhndorf, President
Cook Inlet Region Inc.

"... APRN really keeps me up to date on what goes on around the state. Not just the oil spill coverage, but beyond that... It's tremendously useful to me."

— Senator John Binkley, Bethel

"... My ears are just glued to the radio."

— Tundra Times Publisher
A. J. McClanahan

"... Thanks to the Alaska Public Radio Network, the latest report on the Valdez oil spill is as close as a radio dial."

Anchorage Daily News,
Editorial

Public Radio — Continuing coverage of Prince William Sound and all statewide news.

Alaska Public Radio Network.
4640 Old Seward Highway, Suite 202
Anchorage, Alaska 99503
For local air times call (907) 563-7733.

BOYS and GIRLS CLUBS of Alaska

*We're here for the kids
(and grandkids)
of Anchorage, providing:*

- Athletics
- Enrichment programs
- After-school drop-in programs at Woodland Park, Mt. View, and Eagle River branches ($15 fee)
- Scholarships available for all programs

You can help us help the kids!

1989 Auction
September 9 6:30 p.m.
Egan Convention Center

For more information on the auction and programs, call 248-2697.

Space provided by

BP EXPLORATION

