Special Note:

Alascom has just reduced the cost of all Interstate Day, Night, and Weekend calls by an average of 14.3%. This is the 8th time we have reduced your interstate long-distance rates since 1971. As a result, a call that cost $10.00 in 1970 costs about $2.50 today.

When you choose Alascom, you've chosen the only long-distance company that can give you every service you'll ever need.

Like calling from anywhere in Alaska to everywhere in the world. Long-distance operators on duty 24 hours every day. Special interstate discount calling packages. A full range of business and special communications tools. And many of the services of the worldwide AT&T network. Along with the experienced people and technology to grow into tomorrow.

For 15 years, Alascom has provided all Alaskans with the best long-distance service, at the best price.

That's why we're the best long-distance choice for you.
