

'Spirit of the Wind' premieres

The premiere of "Spirit of the Wind" was held last week in Fairbanks and Anchorage. The feature length film is based on the life of dog sled champion George Attla. Actors starring in the film include Chief Dan George, famed Canadian actor, Pius Savage of Holy Cross (in photograph above), William Ambrose of Nulato, and George Clutesie, well-known Canadian actor. Raven Pictures and Doyon Limited produced the film. A portrait of George Attla, by Yupik artist Moses Wassilie, is on display in the Commodore Room of the Anchorage Westward Hilton this week, and will be auctioned Saturday evening at the Tundra Times Banquet in the Howard Rock Ballroom of the Sheraton Anchorage Hotel on Calista Square.
