

Nicolai is delegate to White House Conference on Small Business

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Matthew Nicolai has been elected a delegate to the National White House Conference on Small Business, it was announced recently.

Under the theme "In the Spirit of Enterprise," Alaska small business people met Friday, May 16, 1986, in Anchorage at the Sheraton Hotel, to discuss issues and problems of concern and to put forth specific and comprehensive recommendations for the future of small business.

During the day-long series of meetings, Nicolai was elected, along with 9 others, to represent Alaska at the National White House Conference on Small Business to be held in Washington, D.C., August 17-21, 1986.

Mr. Nicolai is vice president and general manager of CALBIC, an investment consulting service located in Anchorage.

In accordance with Public Law #98-276, the white House Conference is holding meetings in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico. Anchorage, Alaska, was the fifty-sixth such conference prior to the National Conference.
