

Allotted

An individually allotted Native tract of land is being offered for lease on behalf of the Native owner in an advertisement issued Aug. 16, 1974, for proposals to be received until September 27, 1974, by the Anchorage agency, Bureau of Indian Affairs, 1675 "C" Street, Anchorage, Alaska.

The land is a five-acre parcel located on the south shore of Trapper Lake across the Susitna River from Caswell, Alaska and the Anchorage-Fairbanks Highway with access by float plane, ideally situated for a secluded recreational homesite or lodge.

Additional information is available at the local Bureau of Indian Affairs Agency, telephone 274-8661.
