

It's hard to make it out there, especially when you're just starting out.

It's even harder when you have Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (FAS). This preventable condition is caused by the mother drinking alcohol during the early stages of pregnancy.

You can stop this from happening to your child. If you know you are pregnant.... don't drink.

sponsored by VECO, Inc.

"The Alaskan Company that cares about Alaska"