

Chevak Dancers slated for Palmer State Fair

The Chevak dancers will perform a daily rendition of traditional stories all 11 days of the Alaska State Fair, Aug. 22 through Sept. 1.

Performances by the dancers from the Yukon Delta, 550 miles due west of the Palmer fairgrounds, are scheduled at 2, 4 and 7 p.m. each day.

The Chevak troupe has appeared extensively throughout Alaska and is scheduled to tour the Soviet Union this fall.
