

ASRAA offers workshop

The Association for Stranded Rural Alaskans in Anchorage is sponsoring a free Urban Survival Skills Workshop Nov. 20-21 at the Fairview Community Center, 1121 East 10th Ave. in Anchorage.

The workshop will provide valuable information on social services agencies and their eligibility requirements.

Among topics to be covered are:

- How to keep important traditions alive in an urban area.

- How to complain.
- Legal services.
- Finding a job.
- Personal safety in Anchorage.
- Alcohol and substance treatment programs.

Those who attend are asked to bring a sack lunch. Those who want to register may call ASRAA at 277-7043.