

John supports Bush Caucus

TOK — Ruby John, State House candidate, said recently she would definitely join the legislative Bush Caucus if elected.

"The fact that Dick Schultz isn't a member has hindered the district from receiving its fair share of revenue annually," John said during a Tok Chamber of Commerce luncheon.

John, a Cantwell resident, has been advocating better representation, especially on the Bush Caucus and subsistence legislation as her two top priorities to bring higher returns for the district.