

UAA presents Davis lecture

Angela Y. Davis will give a free lecture on "Peace and International Affairs," at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Wendy Williamson Auditorium.

Davis is the author of numerous essays in the areas of black liberation, political prisoners and the penal/judicial system, the struggle for women's equality and U.S. history.

Davis has attained a bachelor of arts degree in French literature, a master's degree in philosophy and is currently enrolled in a philosophy doctorate program in Berlin.

In 1979 Davis was awarded the Lenin Peace prize by the Soviet Union.

The University of Alaska Anchorage Bartlett Lecture Series, named for its benefactor Bob Bartlett, seeks individuals of world renown and topics of national and international importance which help to put problems of Alaska and its people into the context of broad philosophic and social issues.
