PARENT UNIVERSITY

Saturday, November 10, 1990

Sponsored by the Anchorage School District

Parent University is a one-half day conference providing you with an opportunity to learn more about kids, education and ways to work with your children at home. Each participant will select and attend three classes.

The Presenters

Parent University classes will be presented by Anchorage School District staff and the Anchorage community.

Who May Enroll?

Parents, prospective parents, grandparents and educators are invited to attend the Parent University. The program is for ADULTS only.

Invite A Friend

Parent University offers classes for those involved with preschool, elementary and secondary children. Participants do not need to have a child enrolled in the Anchorage School District. Invite your friends and neighbors to attend the Parent University.

Registration

Fee is ONLY $3.00 for the Parent University (non-refundable). Pre-registration deadline 10-19-90. Registration at the door—7:30 a.m. on a space available basis ONLY.

For More Information

Call 269-2265 and we will send you a course description brochure and registration form or stop by any Community School office and pick up your copy.
