STATE OF ALASKA RESIDENTIAL ENERGY CONSERVATION PROGRAM ENERGY AUDITOR TRAINING COURSES

The Alaska Division of Energy and Power Development will be sponsoring a series of residential energy auditor training courses. The sessions will provide intensive training on home structural and functional energy efficiency.

Completion of the residential auditor training course is a prerequisite to anyone wishing to participate as an energy auditor in the State of Alaska's Residential Energy Conservation Program. However, successful completion of the course does not guarantee employment.

There are a limited number of positions open for the training course so it is mandatory that interested persons pre-register.

Courses will be offered at the following times and places:

SITKA JULY 22 - AUGUST 1
To register contact:
