

WEIO scheduled

The 1981 World Eskimo-Indian Olympics will be held July 30, 31 and August 1 at the University of Alaska Patty Gym. Featured this year are the afternoon preliminaries on Friday and Saturday afternoons which is a major change in the games due to the lengthy nights.

Housing at the University is limited to 200 this year because there is a high student enrollment so participants should contact the WEIO soon for arrangements of housing and meals, or plan to make your own arrangements once the list fills up.

WEIO is also under budget restraints due to funding cuts in merly hired to handle calls and rgistration, but this year it will be limited to prior games.

Games this year are the race of the torch, Native sewing competition, Eskimo and Indian Dance competition, greased pole walk, ear pulling contest, Queen contest, fish-cutting, story telling, tug-o-war, one and two foot CETA. A staff secretary was for-high kick, men's blanket toss, women's blanket toss, four man carry, muktuk eating contest, seal skinning, knee jump, one hand reach, Alaskan high kick, Indian stick pull, baby contest, rope gymnastics, ear weight competition, muskrat skinning and parka contest.

Awards will be awarded on a first, second and third place basis. The "Bud" Hagberg Memorial Outstanding Sportsmanship Award and the Howard Rock Memorial Trophy will go to the outstanding athletes voted for by the athletes themselves for good sportsmanship and performance.

Queen contestants should contact Audrey Armstrong at the Alaska Native Medical Center, P.O. Box 7-741, Anchorage, 99510 or call 279-6661 or 344-6919.

For more information on the games, write WEIO at P.O. Box 2433, Fairbanks, AK 99707 or call (907) 452-2088 or call Griffith at (907) 452-1648.
