

Flight school graduate

Geri E. Adams, of Kotzebue, has graduated from the Alaska Airlines flight attendant training school and will begin flying with Alaska Airlines this month.

During her flight attendant schooling, Adams was instructed in emergency aircraft evacuation procedures aboard all aircraft that Alaska Airlines flies. She also learned about food service and grooming, along with first-aid procedures.