

Sen. Stevens to Attend Banquet

United States Sen. Ted Stevens, R-Alaska, has accepted the invitation of the Tundra Times to attend the 7th anniversary banquet to be held in Anchorage on October 4 this year.

"I certainly will plan to attend and look forward to hearing the statement made by Vincent Price," said Sen. Stevens in his letter of acceptance.

Vincent Price, famous actor and art critic, has tentatively accepted the invitation of the newspaper to keynote the banquet. Price expressed, however, that his movie schedule might conflict with the banquet date but he would certainly be present if this does not occur.

Congressman Howard W. Pollock has also accepted and would be present unless some unforeseen event prevents him.

Governor of Alaska and Mrs. Keith H. Miller have also accepted the invitation.

The banquet will be held in the Anchorage-Westward Hotel Ballroom that has a seating capacity of about 630 people banquet style. If there should be an overflow the Anchorage-Westward management said the Commodore Room would be available. It seats about 175 people.

The theme of the Anchorage banquet will be, "Cultural Contributions of the Native People of Alaska."
