Meet Bill Jones,
the second most
excited person
in the park

Kenny Benson's first home run didn't tie the score or win the ball game — in fact, it was the closing hit of a practice session. And it was one of the most exciting hits in Kenny's young life. It was exciting for Bill Jones, too. Bill is a drilling clerk for Atlantic Richfield Company, and after work, he and Kenny spent a lot of time leveling out that swing. When it paid off, they both felt like winners.

Bill's involvement with the Little League and the YMCA brings a lot of important victories like that. We're proud of Bill Jones and of all the people like him at Atlantic Richfield, people who are quietly involved in shaping a better Alaska for us all.
