

Whale Jawbones From Pt. Hope

Whale jawbones, 14 feet long, arrived in Fairbanks yesterday from Point Hope along with whale muktuk to be used in a muktuk-eating contest during the Eskimo Olympics that will run five days starting July 23.

The jawbones will be erected into an arch through which the Olympics performers will march.